

MARK YOUR CALENDAR and make plans to attend the Texas Logging Council State Meeting on July 10-11 at the Hotel Fredonia in Nacogdoches. Events start on Friday evening with registration from 4-6pm followed by Meet, Greet & Eat - an opportunity to catch up on the latest news from different areas in the state as friendships are renewed and new friends are discovered.

On Saturday, July 11, registration will open at 7:30 am and program sessions will start promptly at 8:00 am (breakfast on-your-own, available at the hotel). The program session features an impressive lineup of speakers who will cover subjects important to you and your business. All this and at the same time you can earn up to six (6) hours of Continuing Education under the Texas Pro Logger program.

SPEAKERS

Lynn Hopper is the Community Relations Director for the Lufkin State School, a recipient of the log auction proceeds from the Forest Family Fun Day & Equipment Show.

James Houser, owner of James Houser Consulting Foresters in Jacksonville, is a past president of Texas Forestry Association and currently serves as Chair of the Legislative Committee.

Danny Dructor is the Executive Director of the American Loggers Council. He is a degreed forester and former logging contractor and has served as Chair of the Texas Logging Council.

Stephen McInnis is the fuel procurement manager for American Renewables, the developer of a new wood-fired biomass power plant near Sacul, Texas.

Gary Clos is a forestry specialist with AgraGate Climate Credits Corp.

Danny Vines is owner of Aspen Power, LLC of Lufkin, which is currently in the process of bringing an all wood fired electricity plant on line in Angelina County.

Ed Small is an attorney with Jackson Walker LLP in Austin and he is the lobbyist for TFA and TLC.

We hope you will be able to join us for this year's Texas Logging Council State Meeting on July 10 and 11. Please use the enclosed registration form and sign up today. Be sure to send your registration in by June 26 to avoid late fees. The agenda for the meeting is also enclosed.

If additional information is needed or if you have a special dietary or other need, please contact the TFA office at (936) 632-TREE or Charlie Gee at (409) 384-0012.
